BOUHAN FALLIGANT
ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS AT LAW

A century of Savannah history: Kessler returning Armstrong mansion to residential roots

It's one of the biggest homes in Savannah, the birthplace of Armstrong Junior College and the former home of one of the city's oldest law firms.

Now the Armstrong Mansion at Gaston and Bull streets is returning to its roots as a private residence 100 years after its completion.

Click here to view original article.