

Attorney Benjamin Karpf Named Partner at Bouhan Falligant

Bouhan Falligant recently announced that Benjamin Karpf has become a partner with the firm. He joined the firm in 2011 after practicing law in Washington, D.C. for several years. His practice focuses on intellectual property law and commercial transactions, including drafting and negotiating commercial contracts, corporate matters and intellectual property litigation. He advises clients on matters relating to business transactions, copyright law, the Internet, mobile devices, social media and related technology, and the clearance and prosecution of trademarks and service marks.

Karpf serves on the Board of Governors for the Savannah Jewish Federation and is a member of the Board of Directors of The Creative Coast. He is a 2014 graduate of Leadership Savannah and was recognized as a Generation Next: Savannah's Rising Stars of Business honoree in 2015. Georgia Trend magazine has named Karpf as one of Georgia's "Legal Elite" in the fields of intellectual property and corporate law.

A Savannah native, Karpf attended college, graduate school, and law school in Washington, D.C. He earned his J.D. degree, cum laude, from Georgetown University, as well as a master's degree in communication, culture and technology. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from The George Washington University. During law school, Karpf worked as a law clerk for the Center for Democracy & Technology and the Media Access Project.

About Bouhan Falligant:

Bouhan Falligant is a full-service Georgia law firm with experienced attorneys who can handle a broad range of complex legal issues for businesses, governmental entities, organizations, professionals, and individuals, both regionally and nationally. Through more than 125 years of practicing law, the firm has developed the deep knowledge base and sound judgment that delivers value to our clients. Bouhan Falligant attracts exceptional attorneys who are diligent, determined and care about the success of its clients.