

Bouhan Falligant Partner Sonny Seiler Featured in Savannah Morning News

Bring together four people who essentially have only one thing in common:

They were born in, raised in and have become part of the fabric of Savannah, the city they call home.

Then you ask one question: To them, what's sacred about Savannah?

And remember. They come from different backgrounds, races and generations.

Attorney Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler is nearly as famous as his pet bulldogs, who have been serving as the University of Georgia's mascot, Uga, for several generations.

A U.S. Army veteran and longtime fixture in the legal community, the 83-year-old Seiler also played a part in the events depicted in "Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil" and even had a role in the book's film adaptation.

Read the full article here.