

Dolly Chisholm Elected to the Georgia Historical Society Board of Curators

The Georgia Historical Society has elected six new distinguished members to the GHS Board of Curators, including Bouhan Falligant partner Dolly Chisholm. The vote and announcement were made Thursday evening at the 176th Annual Meeting of the Georgia Historical Society.

“The six new Curators are some of Georgia’s top business and philanthropic leaders,” said Dr. W. Todd Groce, President and CEO of the Georgia Historical Society. “Their commitment to GHS and our mission will impact history-based education in Georgia for generations to come.”

Elected to the Board of Curators are:

Dolly Chisholm is a partner of the Bouhan Falligant, LLP law firm in Savannah, practicing in the areas of estate planning and probate, real estate law, and corporate law. She previously served as chairman of the GHS Endowment Board of Trustees and as an ex-officio member of the Board of Curators. Ms. Chisholm currently serves on the boards of Senior Citizens, Inc., Ships of the Sea Maritime Museum, the Beehive Foundation, Deep Center, Inc., and the Chatham Club.

Read the full release here.

Practice Areas

- Business & Corporate Law
- Estate Planning

- Real Estate Litigation

Attorneys

- Dolly Chisholm