

Elder Law

Attorneys at Bouhan Falligant are highly knowledgeable and skilled in laws to protect elderly persons. We are diligent and determined on behalf of our clients because we care.

Our attorneys have handled many issues pertaining to elder law, including, protection against elder abuse, neglect, and fraud; powers of attorney; medical care directives; consumer protection; landlord/tenant needs; real estate and mortgage assistance; tax issues; and various levels of advice, counseling and advocacy of rights.

Our elder law attorneys have represented seniors and their families in legal issues regarding their safety and well-being for many years.