

Georgia Trend Recognizes Bouhan Falligant Attorneys as “Legal Elite”

Four Bouhan Falligant attorneys were recently recognized in the December 2016 issue of Georgia Trend with the publication's prestigious “Legal Elite” designation. Legal Elite recognizes the top attorneys in the state of Georgia as selected by their peers.

“It is always an honor to be recognized by our peers for outstanding client service,” said Lea Holliday, managing partner, Bouhan Falligant. “These attorneys reflect the firm's commitment to superior service to this community.”

Bouhan Falligant attorneys who earned the Legal Elite designation include:

- Kathleen Horne — Bankruptcy & Creditors Rights; Banks & Financial Institutions; Commercial Litigation; Foreclosures & Workouts; Landlord & Tenant Litigation
- John Lientz — Banks & Financial Institutions; Business & Corporate Law; Commercial Real Estate; Estate Planning; Transportation & Logistics; Wills & Probate
- Melanie L. Marks — Business & Corporate Law; Commercial Real Estate; Elder Law; Estate Planning; Residential Real Estate; Wills & Probate
- Maggie Puccini — Bankruptcy & Creditors Rights; Banks & Financial Institutions; Commercial Litigation; Condominium & Homeowner Association Representation; Construction Law; Foreclosures & Workouts; Landlord & Tenant Litigation

Georgia Trend's Legal Elite issue honors the state's most effective attorneys in a number of practice areas, including bankruptcy/creditors' rights, business law, corporate law, criminal law, family law, general practice, labor & employment, personal injury, public finance/bonds, and taxes/estates/trusts. Recipients, who must be a member of the State Bar and live and practice in Georgia, are nominated and selected by their peers.
