Gregory G. Sewell is partner with Bouhan Falligant's civil litigation department. Sewell focuses his practice on medical malpractice defense, personal injury defense, nursing home & long-term care defense, and business litigation, including non-solicitation covenants, covenants not to compete, and non-disclosure issues. Sewell is a member of the State Bar of Georgia and is admitted to practice before all state trial and appellate courts in Georgia, as well as the United States District Court for the Southern District of Georgia.

Sewell is a life-long resident of Savannah, Ga. Upon graduation from Benedictine Military School in 2000, Sewell attended the University of Georgia. While an undergraduate at the University of Georgia, Sewell was a varsity athlete and three-time varsity letter winner for UGA's Track and Field Team, competing at a national level in the outdoor men's decathlon, indoor men's pentathlon, indoor men's heptathlon (setting a UGA record which stood until 2008), and outdoor men's 400-meter intermediate hurdles. Sewell was a scholar-athlete at the University of Georgia.

Upon graduation from the University of Georgia in 2004, Sewell attended law school at Georgia State University School of Law. While a law student, Sewell served on the executive committee of the Student Bar Association as Community Service Chairman and was awarded the Litigation Honors Designation. Sewell earned his Juris Doctor from Georgia State University School of Law in 2007.

In 2012-2022, Sewell was selected as one of Georgia's "Rising Stars" by Georgia Super Lawyers and Atlanta Magazine. Only 5 percent of the total lawyers in the state are selected for inclusion. Sewell has also been named Georgia Super Lawyers for 2023-2024 and Lawyer of the Year for Personal Injury Litigation - Defendants by Best Lawyers (2023). He has also been recognized in Best Lawyers in America (2018-2025), America's Top 100 High Stakes Litigators® for Georgia (2021), Savannah Magazine's New Guard (2019), Georgia Best Lawyers (2018), and included in Georgia Trend Magazine's Legal Elite (2013). Most recently, Sewell was selected as a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America .

Sewell is married to the former Blair Capallo of Savannah, Ga., and they have four children.
