

Nursing Home & Long Term Care Facilities

Long-term care facilities, skilled nursing facilities, assisted living facilities, and nursing homes are constantly targeted by lawsuits that regularly misapply and overextend federal and state regulations in an effort to gain a tactical advantage in litigation, arbitration, and at trial. Bouhan Falligant's nursing home & long-term care team understand this highly-regulated industry, as well as the medical and legal intricacies associated with long-term care. Bouhan Falligant has successfully litigated, arbitrated, and resolved numerous cases involving long-term care, skilled nursing care, rehabilitative care, and dependent care.

We also understand the strain, stress, and burden that litigation places upon facilities, the administration, and the individual staff members who work diligently to provide compassionate care to the residents. Our dedicated team of litigators treat each unique case as its own, and we work to relieve the burden of litigation placed on the facilities and its caregivers by providing individualized attention and service to our clients, their facilities and staff. We achieve this with a focus on prompt and efficient case investigation, evaluation and resolution planning to guide case management on a case-by-case basis in the most cost-effective manner for our clients. Having a compassionate, diligent, and dedicated long-term care team affords a higher caliber of service to our clients.
