

Savannah attorneys earn pro bono recognition for giving back to community

The Georgia Legal Services Program Champion of Justice Awards will be presented to Savannah attorneys Dolly Chisholm, partner, Bouhan Falligant. “Providing pro bono services is an integral part of who we are as lawyers,” said Rick Rufolo, Georgia Legal Services new executive director based in Atlanta. “The SBA Pro Bono Award recipients are remarkable people who embody the selflessness and commitment of lawyers who give back to those most in need.”
