

STEVEN BAKER JOINS BOUHAN FALLIGANT

We are excited to welcome Steven Baker as one of our newest members of Bouhan Falligant's probate and estate planning practice group. His practice focuses primarily on estate planning, wills and probate, elder law, and estate and trust administration. Steven earned his law degree from the University of Georgia, in Athens, Georgia, in May 2024.

In 2021, he earned his Bachelor of Science in Political Science and his Bachelor of Arts in Criminology from Shenandoah University in Winchester, Virginia, where he was a member of the baseball team, graduating summa cum laude. He is admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Southern District of Georgia.
