

Vandana Murty Joins Bouhan Falligant as an Associate Attorney

Bouhan Falligant LLP announced today Vandana Murty has become an associate attorney. Murty's practice will focus on malpractice and professional liability defense.

Prior to joining Bouhan Falligant, Murty worked as an associate attorney and served as a prosecutor in the Chatham County District Attorney's Office, specializing in crimes of intimate partner violence and child abuse.

Murty, an active member of the Savannah Bar Association, serves as chairperson for the Chatham County Family Violence Council and is a member of the Southern States Police Benevolent Association, Inc., which is dedicated to providing complete legal representation for police officers serving the community.

She earned her J.D. from the Georgia State University College of Law, where she served as president for the Student Trial Lawyers Association and successfully competed in national competitions. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in microbiology and a minor in Spanish from the University of Georgia.

About Bouhan Falligant:

Bouhan Falligant is a full-service Georgia law firm with experienced attorneys who can handle a broad range of complex legal issues for businesses, governmental entities, organizations, professionals, and individuals, both regionally and nationally. Through more than 125 years of practicing law, the firm has developed a deep knowledge base and sound judgment that delivers value to our clients. Bouhan Falligant attracts exceptional attorneys who are diligent, determined and care about the success of its clients.

Practice Areas

- Malpractice & Professional Liability